

Cookies Policy

We will collect your personal data when you visit our website, where we will collect your unique online electronic identifier; this is commonly known as an IP address. We will also collect electronic personal data when you first visit our website where we will place a small text file that is commonly known as a cookie on your computer. Cookies are used to identify visitors and to simplify accessibility, and to monitor visitor behaviour when viewing website content, navigating our website and when using features. We use necessary cookies which let you move around our website and use all its features. Without them, you wouldn't be able to use our website. We also use performance cookies which help us improve the way our website works. They help us in informing how each page was used, which ones commonly viewed and whether any errors occurred.
